

Accessibility Statement

Richards Specialist Education Ltd

Last Updated: 22nd September 2026

Our Commitment

Richards Specialist Education Ltd is committed to ensuring that our website and digital services are accessible to as many people as possible, regardless of ability, disability or technology.

We believe that everyone should be able to access information about our services in a way that is clear, inclusive and easy to use.

As a specialist educational organisation supporting children, young people, families, schools and Local Authorities, accessibility and inclusion are central to our values and the way we work.

Measures We Have Taken

We aim to ensure our website is:

- Easy to navigate
- Compatible with modern browsers
- Accessible using a keyboard
- Readable using assistive technologies
- Designed with clear headings and logical page structures
- Written in plain English wherever possible

- Accessible across desktop, tablet and mobile devices

We also aim to:

- Use meaningful page titles
- Use descriptive links
- Provide alt text for images where appropriate
- Maintain good colour contrast
- Avoid unnecessary visual complexity

Accessibility Standards

Richards Specialist Education Ltd is committed to working towards recognised accessibility standards and best practice.

We aim to follow the principles of:

- Perceivable
- Operable
- Understandable
- Robust

These principles form the foundation of the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG).

Ongoing Improvements

Accessibility is an ongoing process rather than a one-off activity.

We regularly review our website and digital content and will continue to make improvements where opportunities are identified.

This may include:

- Improving readability
- Enhancing navigation
- Improving compatibility with assistive technology
- Updating older content
- Addressing accessibility feedback from users

Known Limitations

Whilst we aim to make all content fully accessible, there may occasionally be areas of the website that do not yet meet our desired accessibility standards.

Where issues are identified, we will seek to address them as quickly as possible.

Alternative Formats

If you require information from this website in an alternative format, we will make reasonable efforts to provide it.

Examples may include:

- Large print
- Word documents
- PDF documents
- Accessible digital formats

Please contact us to discuss your requirements.

Feedback and Accessibility Support

We welcome feedback on the accessibility of our website.

If you experience any difficulties accessing information, navigating the website or using any aspect of our online services, please contact us.

We will aim to respond promptly and work with you to identify a suitable solution.

Contact Information

Richards Specialist Education Ltd
Company Registration Number: 17473690

📧 info@richardsspecialisteducation.ltd

📞 07472 133736

Review Schedule

This Accessibility Statement will be reviewed:

- Annually

- Following significant website updates
- Following accessibility feedback
- Following changes to accessibility guidance or legislation

Our Commitment to Inclusion

Richards Specialist Education Ltd is committed to creating inclusive, accessible and welcoming services for all children, young people, families, professionals and partner organisations. Accessibility and inclusion underpin everything we do.